

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Salt River is reported falling slowly.

The holiday trade keeps things lively at the different stores.

The train yesterday brought in quite a number of passengers.

The Montezuma Club will give another hop next Friday evening.

The trial of a toy steam engine drew a crowd at St. Claire & Pratt's, yesterday.

The session of the United States Court will bring a number of strangers to the city.

Dillon & Kenealy have a good representation of old St. Nicholas in one of their show windows.

A. S. Moseley yesterday made final proof on a desert claim before the clerk of the District Court.

J. J. Sweeney has now in abundance as beautiful cypripediums as could be produced in any garden under the sun.

The ladies of the Episcopal Church will give a party musicale next Thursday, being at the residence of Mrs. H. H. Logan.

A. E. Cobb wore an extra large-sized smile yesterday because of the arrival of a ten-pound boy at his house early yesterday morning.

George W. Perkins, the real estate man, seems to be doing a good business. He is taking quite a number of people out daily to see the "La Villa Tract."

The Phoenix Hotel will be opened up in about two weeks under new management. Mr. Gardner, the proprietor, says the hotel will be completely renovated.

Probate Judge Baxter yesterday issued letters of administration on an order of the court to F. W. Gatzke, in the estate of Jacob Kinsler, deceased, upon his filing the requisite oath and bond.

A roulette dealer in one of the saloons the other night caught a man slipping a check upon the number which had won and was not deterred by the crowd from inflicting summary and severe punishment upon the would-be swindler.

Quite a number of social entertainments are set to transpire before Christmas. First will come the Episcopal musicale, then the Montezuma Club hop, next the Mercantile Casino and following that is the dramatic entertainment.

At a meeting of Arizona Chapter No. 1, Royal Arch Masons, last night, the following officers were elected: H. B. Lighthizer, High Priest; C. D. Belden, King; H. H. McNeil, Scribe; E. Ganz, Treasurer; C. H. Knapp, Secretary. The lodge now meet at their new quarters in the Monihon Hall.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday at 10 a. m. J. H. Bolton appeared before the Board and asked that an assessment against him for a certificate of deposit for $2500 be stricken from his assessment of 1890, as he did not possess the certificate. Mr. Bolton was sworn, and it appearing that such was the case, it was so ordered. Adjournment was taken until 10 a. m. today.

If people in Phoenix do not have roses in their yards they have only themselves to blame. Yesterday evening Mr. M. A. Davis showed a Republican reporter a magnificent bouquet of roses that he had just plucked from the yard of Mrs. Lum Gray, to send to Mrs. Davis, who is visiting in Albany, Texas. With a little care and attention yards here can be turned into veritable Arcadian bowers.

Two vagabonds who were arrested by Marshal Blankenship Friday, were put to work cleaning the crossings Saturday. While engaged in the pleasant pastime they improved the shining hours to ask passers-by for money. The Marshal, however, was keeping a sharp lookout and, detecting them at their begging tricks, put them on bread and water for forty-eight hours. This diet was not to their liking and this morning they solemnly promised, that if released, they would journey on toward the land of the setting sun, and the scene of the Salt River Valley would be breathed by them no more. When last seen they were making fast time on the passes for Maricopa.

PERSONAL.

A. M. Franklin and Ben Goldman were up from Tempe yesterday.

Geo. F. Coats, Commissioner to the World's Fair, returned yesterday.

J. Fleishman, Los Angeles; J. Steffan, El Paso, registered yesterday at the Central Hotel.

Wm. E. Guild, M. McGloin, Wm. Johnson, S. R. McLees, Florence; T. P. Banta, Mesa; John C. West, Chicago; George F. Ashton, San Francisco; W. W. Houston, Tempe, are registered at the Commercial.

J. W. Chapman and family, R. W. Draper and family and Mrs. Blackwood, all of Mississippi, arrived in Phoenix yesterday. They are all relatives of Mr. C. P. Chapman, of McNulty & Co., of this city. Mr. Blackwood being Mrs. Chapman's mother. They will locate in Phoenix.

PROPOSALS

FOR PUBLIC PRINTING.

PHOENIX, Ariz., December 8, 1891.

THE UNDERSIGNED WILL RECEIVE SEPARATE bids for the laws and journals of the Sixteenth Legislative Assembly of Arizona, for printing, binding, presswork and material, as follows, until January 10, 1890:

Composition in book form, in long primer or small pica solid, between the lines and paragraphs, the work to be measured in all cases as plain work, side notes to be measured separately in the laws, according to the type in which they are set, but the head notes to be considered as only a part of the page and not to be measured separately; half titles and blank pages in the body of the work not to be allowed, except when absolutely necessary. Binding of the laws, 900 in pamphlet form and 300 in calf; of the journals of each house, 225 in pamphlet form and 50 in calf. Presswork for each taken of 250 impressions, eight pages to constitute a form. Paper for above work.

Bidders must accompany their proposals with a bond of $1500 for each of the two books, conditioned for the faithful performance of the work. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved. The laws to be delivered within twenty-five days, the journals within sixty days after the adjournment of the Legislature. Final payment to be made after work has been approved by First Comptroller of the United States Treasury.

THIS $6 BOOK FREE TO YOU

IT AFFORDS US PLEASURE TO ANNOUNCE TO THE PEOPLE THAT we are about to give them a great benefit. Notwithstanding we have always been known as the most enterprising merchants in this section, and that we have sold the best goods in nearly every case lower than others, we believe it is right to do the best we can by our patrons, thereby securing not only the largest amount of trade but also the greatest number of friends.

We want everybody to understand that we are not trying to see how few goods we can give for a dollar, but how many.

We will issue a commutation CARD to you, and as cash purchases are made at our store the card will be punched, and when purchases to the amount called for by the card have been made, we will give you $6.00 in the form of this magnificent book, entitled

"Webster's Encyclopedia of Useful Information and World's Atlas."

A brief description of which can be found on the back of the card.

We cannot, in such limited space, give a complete description of the book, for it must be seen to be appreciated. Suffice it to say that such an offer has never before been made in this community. The book measures 10x12 1/2 inches, is 5 1/2 inches thick and occupies a space of 312 cubic inches—being Royal Octavo in size, containing 560 pages, 188 fine illustrations and 50 finely-engraved Maps, all prepared expressly for this book. It is printed from large new type, on good paper, and is handsomely and durably bound in Morocco Cloth.

Every volume is worth $6.00 to any person or any family, and is really a household necessity. Notwithstanding the fact that we have the reputation of selling goods cheaper than anyone else, or prices will still be as low, if not lower than ever before. We will be amply repaid for the great expense we will have by selling to our regular customers, and of enjoying the trade of scores of new ones.

In order to get the right to distribute these valuable books, we were obliged to order enough to supply one to every family for miles around. Visit us at once, examine our stock and prices as we have become convinced you can do better with us than where you are trading now, if not buying your goods at our store.
